

You may be aware of the receiving test the ARRL recently did in the test neighborhoods presently using BPL. The noise from BPL was terrible. It clearly presents a strong source of interference across the amateur radio spectrum. Because of this BPL in its present form should not be approved.